During the past three years, it has been our pleasure to work with Lieutenant [redacted] now assigned to the Special Projects Team of [redacted] in the Directorate of Plans on a variety of extremely sensitive, important and complex matters.

It is my understanding that Colonel [redacted] soon is to be transferred to other duties and I take this occasion to commend him for the outstanding cooperation and assistance he has rendered this Agency as Air Force representative. His skill, imagination, zeal and proficient command of a most intricate professional discipline have contributed materially to the successful accomplishment of our joint projects.

We greatly appreciate your assignment of such a capable officer to this critical job and we wish him continued success in his new position.
